RE: Concerns with your recommendation.

Dear Stephen Reynolds:

Hey Mr. Reynolds I got your letter on me getting that second evaluation I made my point clear to you before this letter that I was mentally fine and im am refusing the mental evaluation from your department lastly, if you ~~continue to oppress~~ <sup>Continue to Press</sup> me for a mental evaluation, I will consider this harrassment.

Sincerely,

Re: Your concerns about your case and your mental health

Dear Mr. Reed:

Thank you for meeting with me so I could hear your concerns. I realize that you were disappointed with the information that I had to tell you regarding mental evaluations and how court works. I understand that you would like Ms. Hauber to immediately start working on fighting your case. She would also like to do this.

However, at this point in time, the court requires that you have a medical doctor say that your mental health is ok for you to go to court.

As I mentioned during our visit, a second doctor will meet with you. This may be at the jail or it may be at the mental hospital on Delmar in the City of St. Louis. I understand that you do not want to go the hospital. However, for you to go to court, you will need to have this second evaluation completed. It is in your best legal interests to cooperate with the evaluation.

Beverly and I are ready to help you fight your case after the mental evaluations are complete and you have the ok to go to court. This process will take at least 60 more days. It may take 6-12 months if the judge decides you need additional mental health treatment before you are ready to go to court.

Beverly and I will keep you updated. We will be in contact with you at the jail every 45-60 days or so.

Sincerely,

Stephen Reynolds
District Defender
